

It is the mission of the Nassau County School District to develop each student as an inspired life-long learner and problem-solver with the strength of character to serve as a productive member of society. In order to achieve this mission, it is crucial to develop the student as a whole including their mental and behavioral wellness.

This resource guide was created so those who are having a difficult time know where they can turn. This guide includes many providers from all walks of life and an assortment of specialties to help ensure you to find the correct fit.

This guide is not an endorsement of any particular provider, simply information on some of the resources that serve Nassau County youth and families. You may search psychologytoday.com or contact your healthcare or insurance provider for additional mental/behavioral health providers.

Reaching out for help does not have to be shameful or embarrassing. The sole purpose of this guide is to provide community members with the proper tools to help through difficult times.

Please contact your school's guidance/student services office for more information.

Nassau County, FL Behavioral Health Community Resources

For issues concerning substance use, mental health, and more.

If your student has health insurance, first consider contacting your insurance provider to see what mental or behavioral health providers and services may be covered with your plan. The contact information is usually located on your insurance member ID card.

Many employers offer an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for employees and their family members. Consider exploring this as an option.

Community mental health providers receive government funding to provide free or reduced cost services and emergency services.
